DECLASSIFIED

The Consulate General was asked to comment on the adequacy of the map which was used on the cover of the 1947 edition of the Summary. It is believed the map is adequate for the purposes of the Summary. It is suggested, however, that the city of Enugu, provincial capital of the Eastern Provinces, should be added since the other provincial capitals Kaduna and Ibadan are shown. Other cities of importance that might also be added are Onitsha on the Niger River; Maiduguri on the Benue River; and Sapele, from which a large part of Nigeria's timber is shipped.
